

Harbour's Fate

As we sit here, the sun reflecting a thousand day stars dancing across the water's surface a never-ending fireworks display brilliant winds blow, as we talk about a harbour's fate about your choice

the people having a voice.

If we speak ... if we save this beautiful view gain for the next generation a gift of visual poetry we will not be forgotten.
